DEAR PARISHIONERS,

November is always, in the Church, a month of memory. The first of November is All Saints Day, a day when we are mindful of those exemplary models of faith who, as proclaimed by the Church, have given us an example of holiness. The second of November is All Souls Day. In the Church, that is the day when we remember all the faithful departed, that through the mercy of God, they may rest in peace. Here in our parish, on Monday, November 3rd, we will have our annual Mass of Remembrance, as we pray for all those who have passed away during this past year in our parish. At this Mass, each person is remembered individually, as a candle is lit in their memory. Do try to join us for this Mass of Remembrance. This month of memory ends with our national day of Thanksgiving and the Church celebration of the conclusion of the Church year with the feast of Christ the King. Let us then remember our past and those who have gone before us, so that we may continually change the future.

Fr. Zinno
