CHRISTMAS GIVING FOR THOSE IN NEED:

This year our parish will have a “Giving Basket” at the door of the Church. In the basket are slips of paper that list gift items that will go directly to families and young people in need as Christmas gifts. Simply draw a slip out, purchase the item, wrap it and put the slip on the gift. Bring it to the Church and place it in the large Christmas box that will be in the foyer of the Church. Help make this Christmas a little more festive for those truly in need.

NOCTURNAL ADORATION SOCIETY MASS

DEAR PARISHIONERS

Now we begin again! Advent is our time to start over again as we begin this new liturgical year. Advent is a time of watchful preparation for the birth of Christ. We put on purple vestments, light Advent Wreaths, and make our liturgical celebrations a bit more solemn, all in our hopeful expectation of the celebration of the Nativity. Christ's birth is our hope. The Word became Flesh so that salvation could be ours. Such is our hope during the Advent season. Take this special time of preparation to spend time with the Lord so that when Christmas arrives this year you will be prepared again for this wondrous celebration.

Fr. Zinno
