DEAR PARISHIONERS:

This coming Thursday I leave for Rome to attend the diaconate Ordination of our parish son and brother, Steven Matthew Glover. Many of you, our parishioners, will likewise be there at St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City for this wondrous occasion. I know that all of you will be with us in prayer on Thursday, October 9, as, through the Imposition of Hands and the power of the Holy Spirit, His Excellency, Theodore Cardinal McCarrick, Archbishop of Washington, DC, will ordain this young man of our parish to the Diaconate. Please continue to keep him and all of us, on this pilgrimage, in your prayers, so that God's graces will abundantly be showered upon he who is to be ordained into the service of God, as his final step to the Priesthood, and those whom he is called to serve. May I extend my sincerest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Steven Glover and Family for the love and support they have given to their son as he now answers the Call of Christ. Ad Multos Gloriousque Annos!!

Arrivederci.....Fr. Zinno
