CHILDREN HELPING CHILDREN after reading an article entitled "Crisis in Sudan"; Lisa Dion's 6th Grade Class at OLMC has decided to help the children of Sudan who are in refugee camps. The students are sending notepads, lined paper, coloring books and crayons. They also wrote the children letters. One 6th Grader, Megan Silva, wrote, "Here at our Catholic school, we like to help people in need. We donate to a lot of people in tragic times." Well done, 6th Grade!

Dear Parishioners,

The national and local elections took place this past Tuesday, and since this bulletin goes to press late Tuesday afternoon, the results aren't in. We certainly pray that as a nation we can be united under God in our pursuit of liberty and justice for all.

This coming week I will be away on retreat. I will be at the Opus Dei Retreat House in Pembroke, Massachusetts. Fr Gaffney will be away on retreat the following week at St. Anselm's Monastery in Manchester, New Hampshire. Please keep us in your prayers as this spiritual renewal is so vital to our priesthood.

We remember those in our parish who died during this past year, at our annual remembrance mass this Monday evening at 7:00PM. All are invited as we pray for these deceased and light candles in their memory. Fr. Gaffney will be the celebrant and homilist at this mass.

Fr. Zinno

BRISTOL GOOD NEIGHBOR SOUP

KITCHEN is looking for help replenishing the food pantry. They are in need of cereal, soup, canned chili, ravioli, canned meats, tuna, spaghetti sauce, fruit, peanut butter, meals in cans, macaroni and cheese and any other perishables. This summer has been a particularly demanding time for the food pantry and any help that is provided is appreciated and goes a long way. They are in their 13th year of operation and are open from 8:30AM to Noon, Monday through Friday. A prepared meal is served five days a week to 35-40 people. Good Neighbors is an independent non-profit organization located at 378 Hope Street, Bristol. They can be reached at 254-0726. Call and ask for Janet.
