

BEACON HOSPICE & PALLIATIVE CARE

is sponsoring a Bereavement Education/Support Group on Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8:00PM at the Beacon Hospice office, 650A Waterman Avenue, East Providence. Each session will provide information about grieving and an opportunity to share experiences. Because the groups are small, pre-registration is required. More information? Please call Pat Owen at 438-0008.

From the Desk of the Assistant Pastor

What a time to move to Bristol! These past few weeks have indeed been very busy. I have actually managed to unpack a few boxes!! The festivities of the Fourth of July and the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel have been opportunities for me to witness how the residents of Bristol celebrate both their civic and religious heritages. Believe it or not, this was my first Fourth of July parade in Bristol and my first Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (in Bristol). I have enjoyed these occasions to meet so many of you. Whether I was waving to you from underneath an umbrella at the parade (the rain had no connection to my arrival in town), or sampling some delicious food with you under the tent at the Feast, or praying with you as we processed with the statue of Our Lady, I have enjoyed being with you and receiving your warm words of welcome.

I have also begun my ministry as Catholic Chaplain at Roger Williams University. During these past few weeks I attended some of the orientation sessions for new students and their families. There are many new faces to meet there, too. I have been happy to meet a number of parishioners who happen to work at Roger Williams. I get to see them not only in church, but also at their place of work!

So, what are my first impressions? I am so very impressed by your devotion to Our Lady. I am impressed by your tremendous generosity in sharing your time and talents to organize and execute the Feast. And I am impressed by and grateful for your friendliness in welcoming this Irishman to the parish family.
