Dear Parishioners,

According to State and Diocesan Statutes, each parish is required to have two lay trustees who sit on the parish corporation board along with the Pastor, the Bishop, and the Vicar General of the Diocese. A trustee is to be a long standing parishioner who is knowledgeable about the parish on a variety of levels and has been loyal and faithful in the participation of parish life. As you know our loyal and faithful trustee of nearly 35 years passed away in June, C. Thomas Campagna, whom we miss dearly for his wisdom and faith. May eternal light shine upon him!

I have now selected a new Trustee for our parish who will join our current Trustee, Frank Vaccaro. Our new Trustee is an outstanding parishioner, who has been involved in the parish in so many and varied ways. I know she will provide for our corporation, me and subsequent pastors, and the parish at large, the trusted advice and guidance we need. I am very happy to announce that our new trustee will be Elizabeth Vendituoli. My God bless her in this new role for her in our parish.

Fr. Zinno
