A NOTE OF THANKS FROM

EDDY GONZALEZ

I want to thank all of you for the hospitality and kindness you have shown to me during my summer assignment here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel. It was a great experience! I never felt like a stranger. In fact, to the contrary, to me, I knew very much that I was at home. This really encourages me to continue in my journey to the priesthood, which is not only my journey anymore, but also yours, as you participate in it with your prayers. This summer was amazing and I thank God for that. I learned simplicity from all of you, which is a big lesson from the people of God. This is a community blest with many gifts, a great Pastor, Assistant Pastor and of course, a great staff. Ana, the housekeeper and cook made sure that I was well fed and my room was in good shape. They all taught me how the life of a priest should be.

Unfortunately, I must now conclude my assignment here, and believe me, it is not easy, especially when I was among great people. I take with me a lot of stories and experiences which I will later share with my fellow seminarians and they will enjoy them as much as I did! From the bottom of my heart, a million thanks! I say, not goodbye, but “so long”. God Bless you all!
