DEAR PARISHIONERS:

For most parishes this week marks a time when things slow down, and everybody gets to relax a bit. NOT FOR US!! Graduation, this week, then the beginning of the 4th of July festivities, and ultimately the week long celebration of our parish feast. Summer break really doesn't begin until after the feast ends.

However, as we all know, our faith never takes a vacation. The practice of our faith should be a matter of routine autumn, winter, spring, and summer. In fact the summer months most likely afford more of us the opportunity to come to daily Mass or perhaps to stop by the Church during the day for some quiet time of prayer and recollection. Spend a little more time with the Lord this summer and the Lord for His part will be generous in the manifold graces He pours upon you.
