Buona Festa per Tutti

Dear Parishioners,

And so it is for the 111th time here in Bristol, we will solemnize our devotion to Mary, Queen of Carmel, at 2PM with a living rosary, a prayerful procession led by our chief marshal's Nick and Joan Castigliero and finally the worship of the Eucharist at Benediction. Certainly, this is the most important and most ancient part of our feast. We carry on the tradition of our ancestors, who process with us in spirit, as we carry the Statue of Our Lady of Mount Carmel aloft, sharing with all in our community and state our love for the Blessed Mother of God. We hope you can join us for these most sacred events and all the food, fun, music, and festivities. May Mary Queen of Carmel always guide and protect us!

Fr. Zinno
