THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE: Unperishable food items may be brought in and placed in the large brown container in the foyer of the Church.

CONGRATULATIONS to our pastor, Rev. Henry P. Zinno, Jr. who, this Saturday evening in ceremonies in Manchester NH, was invested into the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem, along with the Very Rev. Albert A. Kenney, Rector of our Seminary, Rev. Michael Colello, Secretary to the Bishop, and Rev. Bernard Healy, official lobbyist at the State House for the Diocese of Providence. The Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem can trace its origins to Godfrey de Bouillon of the first Crusade, who gathered around him a group of knights who were entrusted with the protection of the religious Chapter of Canons who were present at the Holy Sepulchre of Christ. For twenty years, these knights, and those who came to join their number, protected the Christian presence at the Holy Sepulchre, taking as their banner the red Jerusalem cross (shown above) popularized by the crusading knights. By 1113, Pope Paschal II officially recognized their existence and purpose. It was not until 1122 that Pope Callistus II issued a bull establishing them as a lay religious community with specific responsibilities of guarding the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre and the city of Jerusalem in defense of Christianity. Though of ancient origin, their motto DEUS LO VULT 'God wills it' is ever alive and vibrant, for it inspires the Knights and Ladies of the Holy Sepulchre to crusade for equality of men and women, justice for all, and peace in the Holy Land so that Christian, Jew, and Muslim may live side by side in love of God and each other!
