Greetings from Rome:

All is going well here in the eternal city! It seems like I am still in Bristol though since so many Bristolians are here. The ordination of Rev. Mr. Jeremy Rodrigues, Rev. Mr. David Thurber, and Rev. Mr. Jon Reardon, together with 30 other young men, was awesome on Thursday, celebrated at the Basilica of SS. Peter and Paul in Vatican City. Many of the groups now went off on trips to Assisi, Florence, Venice, and Milan. As for myself, I am merely staying in Rome, a short trip to Frascati and enjoying myself with Fr. Quigley and Fr. Ferland. I will see the Holy Father this morning as he gives his traditional blessing from the window of his rooms looking over St. Peter's Square, and you will all be in my prayers. Then I am off right afterwards to my favorite Roman restaurant, Cecelia Metella, for a wonderful pranzo in the countryside. Ciao.. Buono Domenica...a presto!
